Is fear getting in the way of your success? Are you afraid to speak your mind? You are not alone. Speaking in public is the number one fear for most people. This four-sessions workshop helps you to develop your public speaking abilities and gain confidence in all aspects of communication, including written and impromptu speeches, audio visual aids, body language and listening skills.

Comments from past participants: "I felt very privileged to pay so little yet receive so much in knowledge, skills and sharing of experiences." / "It's value for money." / "Good Programme! Thumbs up!"
